

Century-Old Brick Building For Sale or Lease

1025 S BROADWAY STREET, AKRON, OHIO 44311

Overview

This beautifully maintained four-story solid brick flex building with a full lower-level is perfect for a variety of end-users. The building has heavy power (3 Phase/208 V/1200 Amps), a large electronic billboard visible from the highway, a full building sprinkler system, security system, new glass block windows, and three newer overhead doors. The building also has one passenger elevator that is accessible on all floors and one freight elevator that accesses the lower-level through the third floor. The building does produce income from the self-storage units that are currently being used on a few floors of the building.

The building is ideal for a data center user, distribution/warehouse user, machine shop, self-storage facility, warehouse storage, brewery and distillery, among many other uses. With four large overhead drive-in doors in the front of the building and interior dock spaces for unloading along with cool offices and creative spaces on the fourth floor, this building offers something for everyone.
