No legal liability is assumed or shall be implied with respect to the information contained herein. RE/MAX and Owner have not verified any of the information contained herein.

Prospective purchasers are recommended to seek professional advice. A prospective purchaser must make its own independent investigations, projections, and conclusions regarding the acquisition of the property without reliance on this Offering Memorandum or any other information, written or verbal, from RE/MAX or Owner. Materials and information from any source, whether written or verbal, that may be furnished for review are not a substitute for a purchaser’s active conduct of its own due diligence to determine these and other matters of significance to such purchaser. Neither RE/MAX nor Owner serves as a financial advisor to any purchaser.

All data and assumptions regarding financial performance, including but not limited to that used for financial modeling purposes, may differ from actual data or performance. Any estimates of market rents and/or projected rents that may be provided to a party do not necessarily mean that rents can be established at, or increased to, that level. A buyer must evaluate any applicable contractual and governmental limitations as well as market conditions, vacancy factors, and other issues in order to determine rents from or for the property.

Legal questions should be discussed with an attorney. Tax questions should be discussed with a certified public accountant or tax attorney. Title questions should be discussed with a title officer or attorney. Questions regarding the condition of the property and whether the property complies with applicable governmental requirements should be discussed with appropriate engineers, architects, contractors, other consultants and governmental agencies.

Any warranties or representations shall be limited to those expressly provided in an executed purchase and sale agreement. In no event shall a prospective purchaser have any claims against RE/MAX or Owner for any damages, liability, or causes of action relating to this Offering Memorandum. Each prospective purchaser proceeds at his own risk.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Jonathan Taksa of The Taksa Investment Group, part of RE/MAX Commercial & Investment Realty, is proud to present an exceptionally rare 10-unit multifamily offering located at 12592 Washington Place, positioned within the highly desirable Culver City jurisdiction. Opportunities of this scale—especially those that have the potential to be delivered completely vacant—are exceedingly scarce in this submarket, making this an extraordinary acquisition for investors, owner-users, and developers alike.

The property features an outstanding unit mix of six (6) two-bedroom/one-bath units and four (4) one-bedroom/one-bath units, providing an ideal balance of spacious, highly rentable floorplans. Each unit is separately metered for gas and electricity, allowing a future owner to minimize operating expenses and enhance overall NOI. With on-site parking for each unit, strong layouts, and the ability to reposition the entire asset from day one, this is a blank canvas where an investor can implement a complete renovation strategy, achieve market rents, and maximize long-term value.

Adding to the appeal, the site offers potential to add multiple ADUs (Buyer to verify), giving investors the opportunity to meaningfully increase unit count and income. ADU upside is especially compelling within Culver City due to its supportive planning environment and consistent tenant demand.

The location is exceptional. Situated within the sought-after Culver City school district and municipal jurisdiction, the property benefits from the city's renowned services, governance, and business-friendly environment. Residents enjoy immediate access to some of the Westside's most exciting lifestyle amenities—just minutes from the dining, entertainment, and creative energy of vibrant Downtown Culver City, with its award-winning restaurants, cafés, gastropubs, theaters, and cultural institutions. The property also offers close proximity to major employment hubs including Sony Studios, Amazon Studios, Apple, HBO, and the broader Hayden Tract creative district, driving consistent rental demand year-round.

This is a rare chance to acquire a potentially vacant, well-located 10-unit property in one of the Westside's most resilient and supply-constrained submarkets. A true value-add, generational opportunity.

LOCAL ECONOMY

The Culver City office market encompasses approximately 5.74 million sq ft of office space, with nearly 60% classified as Class A, firmly establishing the area as a premium destination for high-end tenants. While average asking rents hover around $44.89 / sq ft, Class A space commands closer to $49 / sq ft.

On the retail and medical front, the market remains even stronger. Retail vacancy in Culver City is extremely low, at just 5.4%, demonstrating persistent demand for ground-floor and patient-driven uses.

Economic Anchors

Amazon Studios

Amazon has rapidly become one of Culver City's most transformative economic anchors. In 2021, the company signed a lease for more than 530,000 square feet at the historic Culver Studios and adjacent Ivy Station developments, establishing a major West Coast headquarters for its entertainment division.

A long-standing fixture in the Culver City economy, Sony Pictures Studios remains one of the largest private employers in the region. Occupying a sprawling 44-acre lot just south of Washington Blvd, Sony employs approximately 3,000 people across film, television, and corporate operations.
