Property Overview

1602 Lavista Road is a highly visible 2,954 SF 2nd generation restaurant in one of Northeast Atlanta's most established and accessible corridors. Located along Lavista Road (16,700 VPD) — a major east-west thoroughfare connecting Midtown, Buckhead, Decatur and North Druid Hills. Located near the intersection of Briarcliff Road (20,100 VPD) — this site offers exceptional exposure, steady traffic counts, and convenient access to surrounding residential neighborhoods, employment centers and is less than two miles from I-85.

This property is ideal for restaurant, retail, professional office, service-oriented businesses, or specialty concepts seeking strong visibility and convenient access. Its central location places it minutes from Emory University, the CDC, CHOA, and the established Toco Hill and Brookhaven communities, making it an excellent choice for businesses that benefit from proximity to both residential density and institutional anchors.

With ample parking, easy ingress and egress, and prominent frontage, 1602 Lavista Road provides a turnkey opportunity for tenants looking to establish or expand in a proven Atlanta submarket.
