167 ACRES ALONG THE SHORES OF CENTER HILL LAKE

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Tucked along the shores of the winding Center Hill Lake, the property lies just off of Hwy-56, north of downtown Smithville, Tennessee. The property has most recently been used as a retreat/conference center and contains multiple structures including a main lodge with conference spaces and offices, a cafeteria area with commercial kitchen, guest houses, a picnic area, a pool, a dock on Center Hill Lake and ample green space.

The 167± acres is currently leased from the Army Corps of Engineers (ACE) for $1 per year until October 30th, 2042. The ACE is open to extending the ground lease depending on the user but for no more than 25 years total.

According to the Seller, among other requirements, the Buyer needs to be a 501c3 corp, must operate a business that promotes education and/or recreation, and remains open to the public even if they run their own programs.

PROPERTY LOCATION

The site is located in the center of the state of Tennessee, just over an hour outside of Nashville, TN. Created in 1949 along the Caney Fork River, Center Hill Lake has brought tourism to the area through the many parks, campgrounds, marinas, and waterfalls that accompany the lake. The entire lake was built, and is still owned, by The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. With the stunning scenery and wildlife of the lake, tourists continue to be lured to these shores time and time again.
