Investment Highlights

22+ years of continuous operation at this location

RTM Operating Company has operated this Arby's since the building was constructed in 2003, demonstrating exceptional commitment to the site and a strong track record of sustained sales in this market.

Cornered location on a high-traffic commercial corridor

The property is positioned on a primary traffic artery in Hopewell Township, receiving 12,500+ impressions in average daily through traffic. Located on the corner intersection of Brodhead and Kane Road, this site provides maximum exposure and convenient drive-thru access.

Proximity to the Pittsburgh metropolitan statistical area (MSA)

Located approximately 23 miles northwest of Pittsburgh, the property benefits from its position within the Greater Pittsburgh regional economy—one of the largest and most diversified in the Mid-Atlantic/Midwest corridor—and convenient access via Brodhead Road (State Highway Route 51) and proximity to I-376.

Strong surrounding commercial ecosystem

The subject is situated within a densely developed suburban commercial corridor in Hopewell Township, with national and regional retailers, restaurants, and service businesses in the immediate vicinity, driving consistent consumer traffic to the area.

About Arby's

About Arby's Restaurant Group

Arby's is an American fast casual sandwich restaurant chain with more than 3,600 locations globally, making it the largest sandwich drive-thru chain in the United States. Known for its signature roast beef sandwiches, Arby's menu also includes gyros, wraps, chicken sandwiches, curly fries, and milkshakes.

Arby's was founded in 1964 in Boardman Township, Ohio by brothers Forrest and Leroy Raffel. The name "Arby's" is a phonetic pronunciation of "R" and "B," short for Raffel Brothers. Arby's is now the largest sandwich drive-thru chain in the United States.

Arby's is owned by and serves as the flagship brand of Inspire Brands LLC, one of the largest restaurant franchise companies in the United States. Inspire was formed in 2018 when Arby's Restaurant Group merged with Buffalo Wild Wings and is backed by Roark Capital Group. Inspire also owns Baskin-Robbins, Dunkin' Donuts, Jimmy John's, and Sonic Drive-In. Combined, Inspire Brands operates over 33,000 locations in more than 60 countries with $32.6 billion in system sales as of 2024 and over 659,000 company employees and franchise team members. Inspire Brands is privately held.

Lease Guarantor: RTM Operating Company

RTM Restaurant Group, Inc. was one of the largest Arby's franchisee operators in the United States prior to its 2005 acquisition by Triarc Companies, Inc. (the Arby's franchisor, now Inspire Brands), which rolled RTM's operations into the combined company.
