MAJOR GROWTH ON THE HORIZON

NATIONAL BUILDER MARKS ZEBULON FOR HUNDREDS OF NEW HOMES · AUGUST 2023

“More than 100 acres near where the Carolina Mudcats play in eastern Wake County could become hundreds of townhomes and single-family homes...”

National homebuilder D.R. Horton submitted a concept plan for Chamblee Lake, a 360-home community at 1509 Chamblee Road in south Zebulon. The residential development would be near Dan Ryan Builders’ Sidney Creek community.”

COOK OUT EXPANSION HEATS UP WITH NEW ZEBULON LOCATION PLANNED · OCTOBER 2023

“Cook Out plans to open another restaurant in Wake County as the fast food chain continues to expand in the Triangle. The company, based in Thomasville, has filed new site plans with the Town of Zebulon for a location in an area that’s saturated with fast food restaurants. The proposed restaurant would be larger than typical Cook Out locations and includes indoor seating...”

Cook Out purchased the 2-acre property for $1.2 million in 2020. Documents filed with the town also show a Domino’s Pizza and a 7-Eleven store planned on either side of the proposed Cook Out.”

ABOUT ZEBULON

Zebulon—just 25 minutes from downtown Raleigh—is a vibrant, welcoming community packed with tons of activities ranging from sporting events to art galleries.

Baseball lovers can root for the home team and catch a classic minor-league baseball game with the Single-A Carolina Mudcats throughout the spring and summer at Five County Stadium.

Zebulon’s core business district is surrounded by historic residential neighborhoods that consist of homes built in the Victorian, Craftsman and Colonial Revival styles. The historic downtown is a must-see, with tours available of the gorgeous Zebulon Town Hall, a 100-year-old building hosting the work of local artists.

Another notable and interesting place to visit downtown—whether you’re a musician or not—is the world-class MacLellan Bigpipes, the only bagpipe manufacturer in North America.
