Development Overview

THE CUBES at Lakeshore is the only fully entitled site inside the I-459 corridor capable of accommodating larger than 500,000 SF.

Colliers has been retained on an exclusive basis to market The Cubes at Lakeshore (The "Property"), an industrial real estate development being developed on a 70 acre site at Rodeo Court and Lakeshore Parkway in Birmingham, Alabama. The Property, located within the Birmingham MSA, is capable of up to around 800,000 SF of distribution or manufacturing space. Site highlights include excellent access, existing road and utilities to the site, and generally flat topography. The location provides short commute times to affordable housing with good school systems. The Lakeshore corridor is a growing area which has recently added apartments, retail, and single family home development. Also, many large facilities have been completed for Lowe's, FedEx, Carvana among others. The site is poised to attract both manufacturers and distribution users.
