

Frank Smith Fine Arts Building / Zula Pearson Theatre

Address: 811 College Ave.

Approximate Size in Square Feet: 19,789 +/-

Date Constructed: 1953

Renovated: 1999

Additional SF since original construction:

Foundation: good

Support Frame (wood stud, steel, or 8 inch block, etc):

Roof apx. Age: September 2007

Plans for future use:

Improvement Characteristics: The A. Frank Smith Fine Arts Building and Zula Pearson Theatre is one of the landmark buildings on the LMC campus. It provides historical value as well as functional value to the prestigious LMC Theatre Arts program. Past attendees and graduates of the performing arts program include Zula Pearson, Sandy Duncan, Tommy Tune, Neal McCoy, Johnny Horton, Margo Martindale, K. T. Oslin, Amanda McBroom and Edwin Neal. Designed solely for theatrical education and presentation, the building also offers some office, classroom, and dance studio space as well as hosting the music program. There are 4 classrooms, a dance studio, 8 offices, a sewing room, scene shop and many areas for prop storage.