LOCATION & DEMOGRAPHICS

Greater Oklahoma City's location in the geographic center of the United States gives businesses located here a big advantage. It is equidistant from the east and west coasts and major trade partners of Canada and Mexico. All major trade hubs and more than 411 million residents are within 1,800 miles of Oklahoma City.

That means not only can you easily source materials and other inputs, but you can also get outputs to your customers profitably as well.

Our region also has one of the fastest-growing populations in the country. Oklahoma City is currently the 20th largest city in the U.S. and the 42nd largest metropolitan area.

AREA

DOING BUSINESS

Greater Oklahoma City offers you big advantages, with a strategic location, market access and the workforce you are looking for. All while providing some of the lowest business costs in the U.S. for a major metro. There is a reason the Arizona State University Center for the Study of Economic Liberty named Oklahoma City the easiest place in North America to do Business.

Of the 41 metros larger than Oklahoma City nationwide, OKC is growing at a faster rate than 2/3 of them.

ECONOMIC DRIVERS

The economy of the Greater Oklahoma City region is diverse. Aerospace makes up one of the fastest-growing sectors, employing more than 45,500 individuals and having experienced a 21% increase in goods & services output from 2020-2025. A few of the key economic drivers include Government, Health Care, Retail Trade and Professional Services. Federal, state and local government account for approximately 20% of all jobs primarily because of the presence of Tinker Air Force Base, the Federal Aviation Administration, tribal employment, and Oklahoma City is the state's capital. The largest number of establishments are found within the professional services sector and the oil and gas sector remains a major contributor to GDP and wages.

Expansive Infrastructure Supports Oklahoma's Growing Distribution & Transportation Cluster

Two International Airports in Oklahoma City and Tulsa

- Lariat Landing, east of OKC Will Rogers International Airport, offers a 1,000-acre multi-use, multi-industry development area. The area offers easy access to I-35, I-40 and I-44, and encompasses Oklahoma City's Foreign Trade Zone (FTZ).
- Tulsa International Airport in Northeast Oklahoma also falls within a subzone of FTZ and is situated near I-244 & I-44.

Largest and Most Inland Ports in the Nation

- Located in Northeast Oklahoma, Tulsa Ports is the nation's furthest inland, all-weather, ice-free port, connecting to the Mississippi River, the Gulf of Mexico and seaports worldwide.
- Oklahoma's ports connect 12 state service areas with 20 states accessible through this waterway.

Intersection of 3 Major Interstate Highways

- More than 600 trucks per day travel Oklahoma's 12,000+ miles of highway, delivering goods to 26 major cities within an 800-mile length of haul.
  - I-35 (South Texas to Minnesota)
  - I-40 (Barstow, CA to North Carolina)
  - I-44 (North Texas to St. Louis, MO.)
- US Highways 69 and 412 ensure that every corner of the state is set up for moving goods efficiently.

Rail Provides Freight Corridors throughout Oklahoma

- Oklahoma's rail lines ship 226 million tons of cargo and 5+ million carloads of freight annually.
- BNSF's 195-acre site Logistics Center in Oklahoma City provides shovel-ready sites for industrial purposes and fully permitted sites with rail infrastructure. It includes mainline turnouts, industry common track and inner roads.
- Union Pacific co-operates more than 1,200 miles of track in Oklahoma and has spent more than $262 million on Oklahoma tracks, structures and facilities since 2016.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Zach Martin serves as the Co-Founder and Managing Partner for ADEPT Commercial Real Estate specializing in acquisition and development in Oklahoma City. Martin began his commercial real estate career in 2005. After several years as a successful commercial real estate broker, Martin began purchasing and redeveloping mixed-use buildings in both Bricktown and downtown OKC's Film Row District. Martin was recognized as a member of OKC's most successful "Forty Under 40" achievers, he has twice won the CoStar "Transaction of the Year" award, and also twice received awards from the Urban Land Institute in honor of his downtown OKC development projects, all while serving on the Board of Directors for the City Rescue Mission. For the past decade, Martin has primarily focused on the acquisition of industrial buildings throughout the Greater Oklahoma City area.
