The Azarian Family supports charitable, educational and philanthropic organizations. Barbara Azarian formed the John M. Azarian Memorial Armenian Youth Scholarship Fund in 1976 following the sudden death of her husband. Each year we award grants to undergraduate college students who demonstrate compelling financial need.

The Azarian Family is also supportive of the Armenian Church and related charities, the Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies at Ramapo College, Mahwah, NJ, as well as St. Thomas Aquinas College (STAC) in Sparkhill, New York. In 2000 Barbara Azarian McCullough donated the Azarian McCullough Art Gallery at STAC.

In 2013, following Mrs. Azarian's passing, the Azarian Family created The Azarian Family Scholarship at STAC, in memory of Martin G. Azarian, a STAC alum, and Mrs. Azarian, who served on the Board of Trustees at St. Thomas Aquinas College for over 20 years.

Please contact us for more information on our scholarship and charitable giving programs.

The Azarian Group, L.L.C. was formed in 1970 by Barbara Azarian and John M. Azarian, Sr. to manage their first shopping center acquisition in Rochelle Park, New Jersey, which measured approximately 10,000 square feet with seven stores. Since that time, The Azarian Group has grown to manage 17 properties totaling over 1,000,000 square feet with more than 300 tenants.

The Azarian Group, L.L.C. manages properties for the small private investor, large partnerships, limited liability companies and financial institutions. The Azarian Group, L.L.C. has developed shopping centers from the ground up, constructed new buildings, and revitalized distressed properties through re-leasing, renovation and promotion and advertising events. The Azarian Group, L.L.C. has also acted as court appointed rent receiver and property manager for financial institutions and third parties.

The Azarian Group, L.L.C. has been a proud and active member of the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) since 1978. We are one of the first 800 members to have joined ICSC.
