HEALTH FIRST HOSPITAL

This will be the largest capital project in the history of Central Merritt Island and includes the relocation of Cape Canaveral Hospital from its current site off State Road 520 in Cocoa Beach to a new site off State Road 520, across the road from Merritt Square mall. Located at 255 Borman Drive. Opening projected for early 2027.

The 14-acre footprint will have these features:

- 268,000 square-foot five-story hospital with state-of-the-art technology
- 120 private inpatient beds
- 25 emergency department treatment rooms
- Six operating rooms
- Employ approximately 650 staff
- 530+ covered parking spots, plus 290+ paved surface parking spots

The hospital will be built to withstand a Category 4 hurricane. The entire campus site will be constructed 13 feet above sea level to withstand storm surge, and the campus will be served by an on-site Central Energy Plant. Groundbreaking was held on March 21, 2024.

The groundbreaking for the new Cape Canaveral Hospital campus comes just two weeks after 'Newsweek' named Cape Canaveral Hospital to its "Best Hospitals" list for 2024 – the fourth straight year Cape Canaveral has landed on the prestigious list – joining just two other Central Florida hospitals and 17 across the entire state of Florida.

PORT CANAVERAL NAMED 'BEST CRUISE HOMEPORT'

Award reaffirms Port's commitment to making Central Florida an attractive option for passengers and cruise lines alike

January 13, 2025 – Port Canaveral – the world's second busiest homeport – has been named "Best Cruise Homeport" for the fifth time in the annual Cruise Hive Awards which are based on surveys of readers of the popular online publication. According to Cruise Hive, Port Canaveral more than doubled the number of votes of the second-place homeport, reaffirming the port as the top choice for cruisers.

"This award is a testament to our investments in state-of-the-art facilities, our dedication to excellence, and the exceptional service provided by our talented team," said Capt. John Murray, Port Canaveral CEO. "We're proud to host record-breaking numbers of passengers while welcoming some of the world's newest and most innovative ships to Central Florida. This recognition reaffirms our commitment to offering unparalleled experiences for cruisers."

One of the cruise industry's most popular cruise-to homeports, Port Canaveral is home to an ever-increasing diversity of cruise lines, including Carnival Cruise Line, Royal Caribbean Cruise Line, Norwegian Cruise Line, MSC Cruises and Disney Cruise Line, and recently added Princess Cruises and Celebrity Cruises – to its impressive lineup of cruise departures.

This summer, the Port welcomed Royal Caribbean's second Icon-class ship, the 236,000-ton Utopia of the Seas – the largest ship to operate a year-round short cruise program – with the much-anticipated Disney Treasure making a magical debut from the Port later in the fall. Royal's third Icon-class ship, Star of the Seas, is scheduled to enter service from Port Canaveral in summer 2025.

Port Canaveral also offers a broad range of itinerary choices, from short getaways and week-long adventures to The Bahamas and eastern and western Caribbean, as well as longer length voyages to the southern Caribbean, South America and the Panama Canal.
