This exceptional property seamlessly blends functionality, modern style, and convenience in one of Frisco's most desirable locations. Approximately 2,000 SF of medical office space available in a professional building along Lebanon Rd, just off Preston Rd in the heart of Frisco. Built in 2004 on a ±0.78-acre site, this space combines modern construction, excellent visibility, and access to one of North Texas' fastest-growing medical corridors.

Highlights Include:

- Medical-Grade Design: Purpose-built for healthcare, this ±2,000 SF suite is designed to support exam rooms, consultation spaces, and administrative offices, offering a professional and efficient environment for medical providers and patients alike.
- Flexible Layout: Perfect for a range of professional uses from medical to office, the layout can be customized to suit your specific operational needs.
- Outstanding Location: Strategically positioned on Lebanon Rd, just off Preston Rd, the property offers prime visibility in the heart of Frisco. It benefits from traffic counts of more than 54,000 VPD and proximity to major corridors including the Dallas North Tollway and Sam Rayburn Tollway. Nearby amenities include Stonebriar Centre, Legacy West, The Shops at Legacy, The Star, and numerous dining and retail options.
- Convenient Parking: A large on-site parking lot provides ample space for both clients and staff, ensuring easy access at all times.
- Professional Setting: Located in a well-maintained, single-story medical office building, the suite offers a secure, discreet, and highly functional environment that supports quality patient care.

This is a rare opportunity to secure a move-in-ready medical office suite in one of the most desirable and fastest-growing areas of Frisco, with demographics and location that position your practice for long-term success.

If after reviewing this Memorandum, you have no further interest in purchasing the Property, kindly return this Memorandum to GO Real Estate Group.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
