93% of the migration
is arriving from outside of Idaho

Population Growth

Over 730,000 people live in the Boise Metro and we're welcoming more every day. In fact, we're the second-fastest growing metro in the nation* with a population growing three times faster than the national average.

This rapid growth — both from in-migration, and retention — is fueled by the draw of recreational and cultural amenities occurring simultaneously with the economic pull of strong jobs.

Net Migration

Net migration measures the migration both into and out-of the Boise Metro. The Boise Metro has the fastest net migration rate of any US Metro* outside of Florida. Ninety-three percent of the migration, on net, is arriving from outside of Idaho. Of these out-of-state movers, over 60 percent, on net, are made up of people under 50 years old, and one in three new residents, on net, is between 20 and 49 years old.

“From 2015 to 2020, the population of Meridian, Idaho grew by more than 31% — a top-three rate in our study. Meridian also ranks ninth for both its August 2021 unemployment rate (2.5%) and five-year change in number of housing units (27.52%)”... “Businesses in Nampa, Idaho are booming. Census Bureau data shows that between 2014 and 2019 the total number of establishments in Nampa grew by close to 29%, the highest rate in our top 10 boomtowns and second-highest overall. Nampa also ranks in the top 5% of cities for two additional metrics: five-year population change and average yearly GDP growth. From 2015 to 2020, the population grew by 15.20% and the average yearly growth in total output for the three-year period from 2016 to 2019 is 6.27%.”

“

Boise rents have increased by 19.36% over the past year and 38.21% over the past three years. The vacancy rate for all rental properties in Boise is 1.67%, up from 1.40% one year ago...Real estate price jumps, low supply, rising household formations, and the flood of pandemic-related population growth have created a perfect storm. There just is not enough housing to meet Boise's demand, and as a result, rental rates are breaking records every quarter, and vacancies remain near recorded lows. This was vividly clear at the start of 2021—the first quarter saw Boise rental market vacancies reach an all-time record of 0.75%. As Q4 came to a close, its 1.64% vacancy rate indicated much of the same experience for renters going into the new year. Demand continues to dwarf available supply.”

Boise ranked higher than 90% of the country for job and high-tech GDP growth and reported some of the lowest unemployment and property crime rates for the metro areas on this list. Those promising statistics along with the city's population boom over the last couple of decades make it easy to see why Boise's in the top 1% of the country for 1-year home appreciation. In the past 12 months, home values in the area have increased 45%.”

With such wide diversity in landscapes and outdoor recreation opportunities, Idaho is one of the most underrated states in the West. From the high desert plains to jagged mountain peaks to pristine rivers and streams, no matter what part of the state you find yourself in, we guarantee there's someplace beautiful to explore nearby.”

Boise, Idaho was named one of the safest cities in the world by MSN. Moreover, it was ranked #8 out of 50! There were only two USA cities on the list, the other being Salt Lake City, Utah which came in at #49.”
