

2231 – 2245 Granville Street | Vancouver, BC

FOR SALE | Mixed-Use Investment / Future Development

This is the first time on the market for this fully leased 12,464 SF freestanding, commercial/residential mixed-use building on a 60' x 122' lot. The commercial section is leased to a diverse mix of 6 long-term tenants and 2 of the 4 residential units have been recently renovated. This property has immense future development upside in accordance with the Broadway Plan which provides the potential to build up to 25 storeys and an 8 FSR on this block. It is conveniently located a block from the Skytrain station at Broadway and Granville St. South Granville has continued to be a prestigious area with some of the finest retailers in the city. It is a desirable area to live with Granville Island only steps away and mere minutes from downtown.

Location

This property is located on the west side of Granville St one lot north of West 7th Avenue. It is directly adjacent to Heffel Fine Art Auction House, who is Canada's leading fine art auction house. Once dubbed Gallery Row, this strip of retail remains to be home to many fine art dealers and stores and is the northern arm of the South Granville Shopping District. It is a vibrant neighbourhood known for its mix of affluent residential and commercial space and is characterized by tree-lined streets, boutiques, art galleries and a variety of dining options.

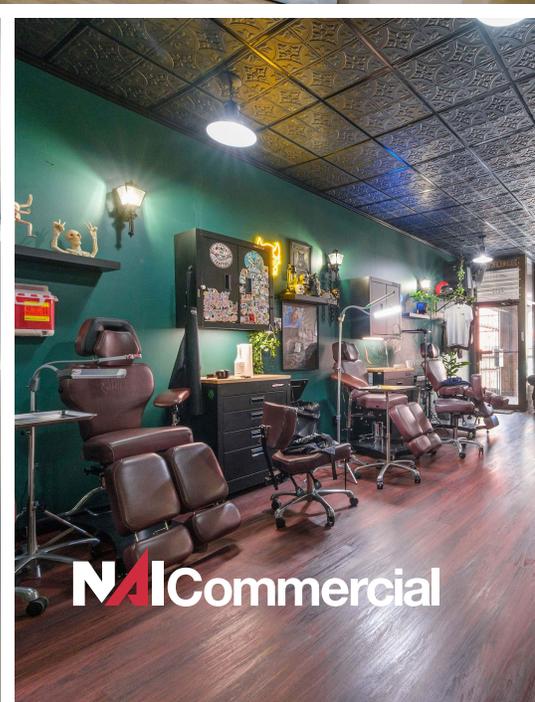

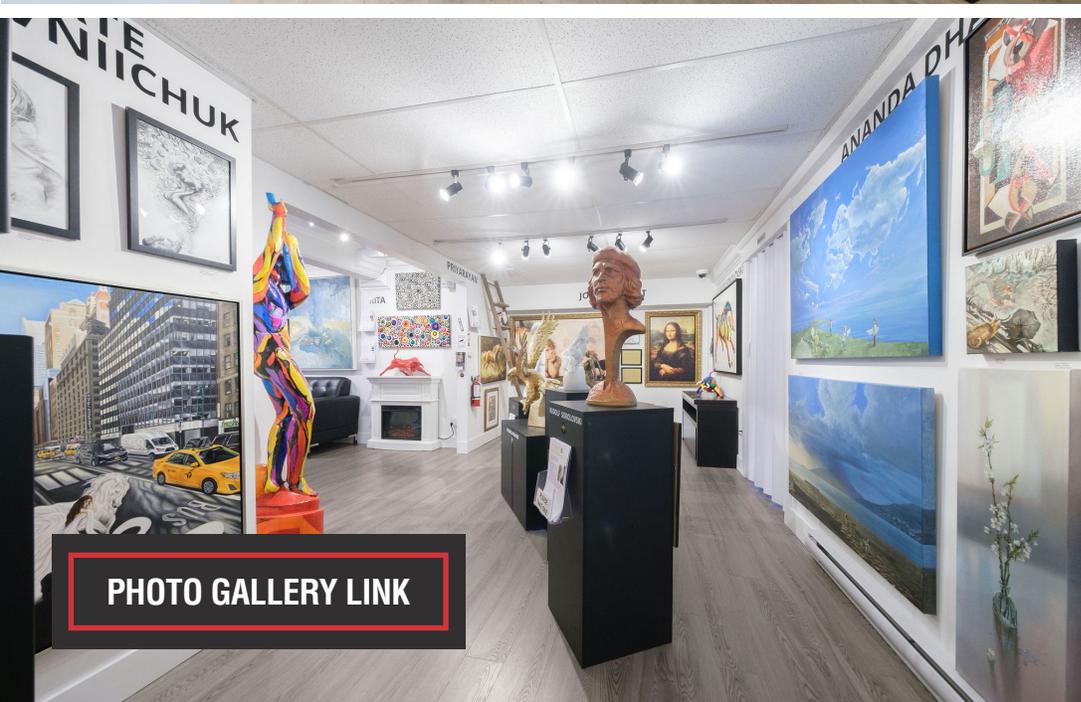

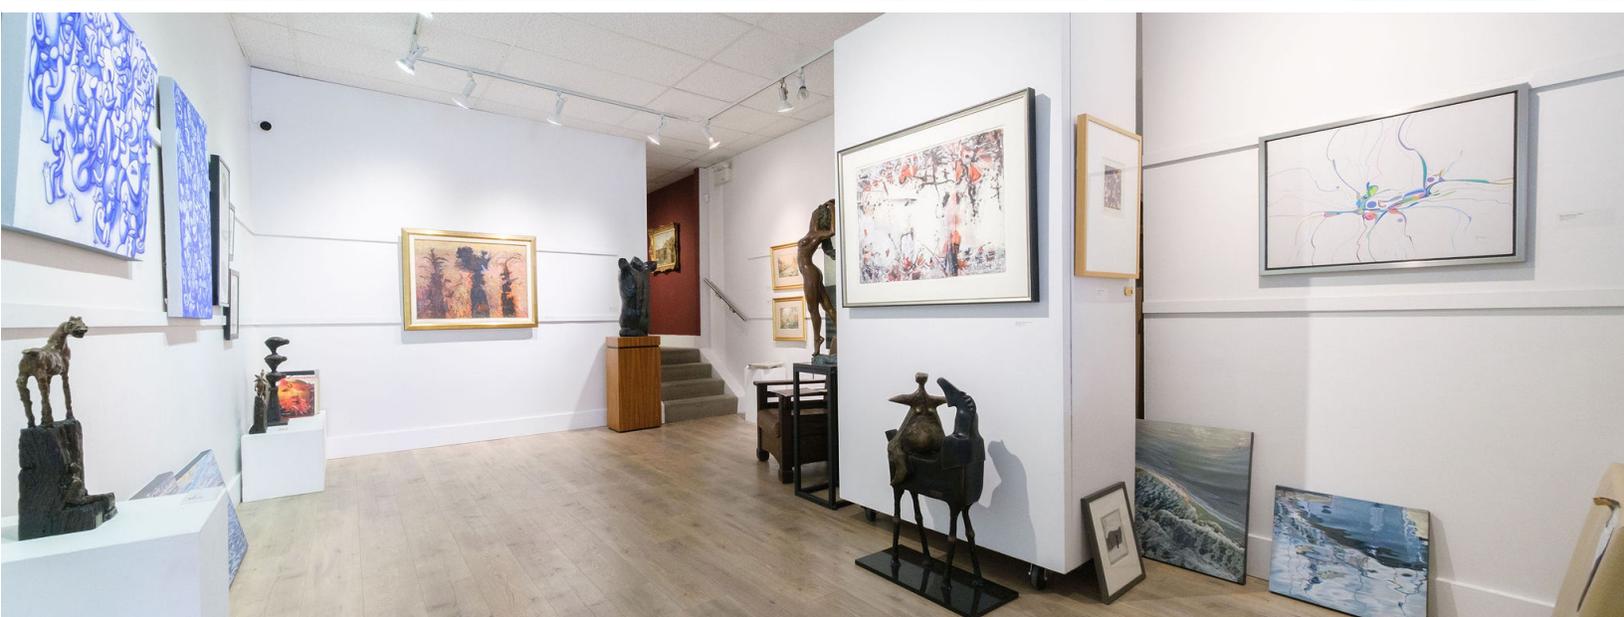

This property is just over 200 metres from the new SkyTrain Station at the corner of Broadway and Granville Street where a new development by PCI is nearing completion. That 39 storey project is comprised of 226 rental units, 30,000 SF of retail and 103,000 SF of office space.

Current Policy

- Up to 25 storeys and 8.0 FSR, dependent on site size and conditions
- Building heights and densities contingent on protected public views
- A minimum of two levels of non-residential uses (e.g. job space) is required, including active ground floor retail/service uses along Granville Street
- Options for secured rental housing with below-market units, strata ownership housing, or social housing
