HISTORY

- Established in 1823 – one of the oldest continuously operating gristmills in the Midwest
- Continuous Operation – still produces stone-ground flour, cornmeal, and mixes using original 48" French Buhr stones (2,000+ lbs each)
- Historic Landmark – part of the Bridgeton Historic District, listed on the National Register of Historic Places
- Iconic Location – sits beside the 1868 Bridgeton Covered Bridge and a scenic waterfall on Big Raccoon Creek
- Tourism Hub – centerpiece of the Parke County Covered Bridge Festival, drawing tens of thousands of visitors annually
- Cultural Legacy – known nationally as a living symbol of Indiana's milling and covered bridge heritage
- Preservation & Business – combines historic preservation with active tourism, retail, and event revenue streams
