An aerial photograph of an industrial park. A large, single-story industrial building with a flat roof is the central focus. A red dashed line is drawn on the roof of this building, outlining a specific section. A white line with a dot at the end points from the text box to this section. The building has several large roll-up doors and is surrounded by a paved parking lot with various vehicles, including cars, trucks, and a boat. There are trees and other industrial buildings in the background.

CITY OVERVIEW

Stuart, Florida

Stuart, Florida is located on Florida's East Coast, near the St. Lucie River Inlet and Hutchinson Island South. Local beaches, parks, waterways, and top-rated schools make Stuart one of the best areas in Florida to live for families and retirees.

Stuart is famous as the Sailfish Capital of the World. You can enjoy both freshwater and saltwater fishing at any of Stuart's rivers, intracoastal waterways, or ocean boating areas. Boat owners enjoy cruising up and down the North and South forks of the St. Lucie River. Stuart has quaint older neighborhoods in the downtown area with a mixture of town homes and condominiums. Stuart's successful revitalization program has made the downtown area the place to be, lined with shops and restaurants.

The top employers in Stuart include Cleveland Clinic Hospital, Vought Aircraft, the Martin County School District, and thousands of successful small businesses. The economy is driven by retail service, hospitality, construction, and government sectors located throughout the city.

Stuart is a growing community, approximately 9.5 square miles in area. The city is planning and implementing a diverse revitalization project in several sectors of the community, including a Business Improvement Grant Program, Community Redevelopment Block Grant, Design Assistance Program, and other programs to support solar energy, residential improvements, and neighborhood revitalization.

REGIONAL OVERVIEW

Martin County, Florida

The cities that make up Martin County include Jensen Beach/Rio, Stuart/Sewall's Point, Hutchinson Island, Hobe Sound, Jupiter/Tequesta, Palm City, Port Salerno and Indiantown. Martin County is a wonderful place to visit and live, with beaches, golf, fishing and boating. The County boasts arts, quaint downtowns with shops, gourmet dining, galleries, museums, historic places, festivals and more.

MARTIN COUNTY IS FOR...

The golf enthusiast... Martin County is home to over 35 world-class golf courses all within a 15-mile radius. The sun worshiper... The County offers its visitors and residents alike some of the finest beaches on the east coast. The discriminating arts shopper... More than 20 galleries participate in a monthly First Thursday gallery night. Many of these galleries are in the historic downtowns of Stuart, Jensen Beach, Port Salerno and Hobe Sound. The music lover... The historic Lyric Theatre offers a wide array of first-class talent nearly 300 days a year... This acoustically amazing theatre features concerts for all music lovers, from classical to rock and roll, and theatrical performances by local and national talent.

Mark your calendars for a plethora of events to look forward to in Martin County, Florida. The Stuart Air Show, Stuart Boat Show, ArtsFest, and the Martin County Fair are just some of the many events taking place throughout the year. The Treasure Coast Children's Museum, located at Indian Riverside Park, is a great place for kids and families, offering a water play area, fishing, and a riverfront view. Often, there are events in the park including concerts, orchid shows, and more. Indian Riverside Park also features the Maritime and Yachting Museum. Hutchinson Island is home to the Elliott Museum which celebrates the genius of innovation, creativity and the historical events of Martin County. Named after the prolific inventor Sterling Elliott, the museum hosts permanent exhibits showcasing Model A Trucks, early transportation, the history of Stuart and its surrounding regions, and baseball memorabilia. For the scientifically minded and curious kids, the Florida Oceanographic Coastal Center offers fun opportunities to learn about our local ecosystem.
