TENANT PROFILE

Warner Pacific University

Warner Pacific University, founded in 1937 and located in Portland, Oregon, is a private Christian institution accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities. The university offers a comprehensive portfolio of associate, bachelor's, and graduate degree programs through traditional, online, and adult-learning formats, serving a diverse and engaged student body. Designated as both a Hispanic-Serving Institution and an Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander-Serving Institution, Warner Pacific has built a strong reputation for access, affordability, and student success, with nearly half of its students being the first in their families to attend college.

Warner Pacific's 10:1 student-to-faculty ratio, coupled with its commitment to community engagement and career readiness, ensures graduates are well-prepared to make meaningful contributions across professions and industries.

WHY PORTLAND

Portland's geographic beauty, economic vibrancy, commitment to sustainability, and rich cultural scene, makes it a superb place to work and live.

Its diverse neighborhoods, collaborative spirit, and accessibility makes it a prime destination for both residents and businesses. These factors collectively make Portland a compelling choice for future investment.

Geography

Nestled at the confluence of the Willamette and Columbia Rivers in the Pacific Northwest, Portland, Oregon, is a city of diverse nicknames—Bridgetown, the City of Roses, Stumptown—all indicative of its unique character, rich history, and stunning geographic beauty.

Portland stands out as the largest economic and population center on the West Coast between San Francisco and Seattle. Ranked as the nation's 26th largest Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA), Portland's vibrant downtown and waterfront serve as the core of a metropolitan region hosting more than 2.5 million people.

Economy

The city has attracted an impressive in-migration of technology-centric firms such as Microsoft, Google, Mozilla, and Squarespace, alongside organic growth from local giants like Nike, Adidas, Intel, and Mentor Graphics. This influx has fueled economic growth and contributed to record-low unemployment rates.

Known for encouraging entrepreneurship, fostering diversity, and promoting sustainability, Portland's eclectic culture draws in talented people who often become long-term residents.

Esteemed educational institutions, including Oregon Health & Science University (OSHU), Portland State University and Reed College, contribute to the city's intellectual capital and education hub identity.

Transit

The city's compact footprint and commitment to urban design provide convenient proximity to downtown, easy access to Portland International Airport (PDX), and a plethora of outstanding amenities.

An extensive streetcar network and bike lanes, in addition to TriMet buses and MAX light rail, contribute to the overall accessibility of the city. These alternative commute options, a preference among young professionals, ultimately save time and money for both employers and employees in the region.

Life & Culture

Livability and affordability are hallmarks of the Portland area, making it an ideal destination for those seeking a high quality of life. The region boasts abundant natural beauty, a mild climate, and a wide variety of housing options. The city's commitment to sustainability, seen in its extensive public transportation system and eco-friendly urban planning, further enhances its overall appeal.

Portland shines as a cultural and artistic hub. A thriving artisan culture celebrated through craft breweries, distilleries, and coffee roasters emphasizes local and handmade products. The city hosts numerous theaters, galleries, and music venues, with the Portland Art Museum standing as a testament to its commitment to the arts.

Culinary Scene

Culinary excellence and a thriving food scene, aptly earning Portland the nickname "Beervana," further contribute to its vibrant cultural identity. And let's not forget the food cart culture—Portland's food carts offer a diverse array of culinary delights, representing flavors from around the world scattered across the city in food cart pods. Strong community engagement is a hallmark, evident in various events, farmers' markets, and festivals that foster a close-knit atmosphere.

MAJOR EMPLOYERS IN THE REGION

PORTLAND REGION

The greater Portland-Vancouver-Hillsboro metro area is a West Coast cultural and economic hub. It occupies center stage in Oregon and southwest Washington's economic performance.

Historically reliant on timber, fishing and agriculture, the area is now known as a hotbed for technology, healthcare, finance, and apparel industries.

Often called the "Silicon Forest", the area enjoys the presence of major information and technology companies such as Intel, Hewlett-Packard, Tektronix, Siemens, Salesforce, and Boeing.

Healthcare is a major employment driver in the region. Numerous hospitals and medical research centers including OHSU, Kaiser Permanente, Providence, Legacy Health and PeaceHealth are integral to the physical and economic health of the region.

Globally-recognized sports and outdoor performance apparel companies such as Nike and Columbia Sportswear are headquartered in the area.

Portland's proximity to Silicon Valley and Seattle has made it an attractive destination for many California and Washington-headquartered technology companies to maintain operations in the area with its business-friendly environment and growing inventory of class-A office-focused real estate.

OREGON INITIAL AGENCY DISCLOSURE PAMPHLET

OREGON REAL ESTATE DISCLOSURE

Consumers: This pamphlet describes the legal obligations of Oregon real estate licensees to consumers. Real estate brokers and principal real estate brokers are required to provide this information to you when they first contact you. A licensed real estate broker or principal broker need not provide the pamphlet to a party who has, or may be reasonably assumed to have, received a copy of the pamphlet from another broker.

This pamphlet is informational only. Neither the pamphlet nor its delivery to you may be interpreted as evidence of intent to create an agency relationship between you and a broker or a principal broker.

Real Estate Agency Relationships

An “agency” relationship is a voluntary legal relationship in which a licensed real estate broker or principal broker (the “agent”) agrees to act on behalf of a buyer or a seller (the “client”) in a real estate transaction. Oregon law provides for three types of agency relationships between real estate agents and their clients:

- Seller’s Agent – Represents the seller only.
- Buyer’s Agent – Represents the buyer only.
- Disclosed Limited Agent – Represents both the buyer and seller, or multiple buyers who want to purchase the same property. This can be done only with the written permission of all clients.

The actual agency relationships between the seller, buyer and their agents in a real estate transaction must be acknowledged at the time an offer to purchase is made. Please read this pamphlet carefully before entering into an agency relationship with a real estate agent.

Definition of “Confidential Information”

Generally, licensees must maintain confidential information about their clients.

“Confidential information” is information communicated to a real estate licensee or the licensee’s agent by the buyer or seller of one to four residential units regarding the real property transaction, including but not limited to price, terms, financial qualifications or motivation to buy or sell. “Confidential information” does not mean information that:

1. The buyer instructs the licensee or the licensee’s agent to disclose about the buyer to the seller, or the seller instructs the licensee or the licensee’s agent to disclose about the seller to the buyer; and
2. The licensee or the licensee’s agent knows or should know failure to disclose would constitute fraudulent representation.

Duties and Responsibilities of a Seller’s Agent

Under a written listing agreement to sell property, an agent represents only the seller unless the seller agrees in writing to allow the agent to also represent the buyer.

An agent who represents only the seller owes the following affirmative duties to the seller, the other parties and the other parties’ agents involved in a real estate transaction:

1. To deal honestly and in good faith;
2. To present all written offers, notices and other communications to and from the parties in a timely manner without regard to whether the property is subject to a contract for sale or the buyer is already a party to a contract to purchase; and
3. To disclose material facts known by the agent and not apparent or readily ascertainable to a party.

A seller’s agent owes the seller the following affirmative duties:

1. To exercise reasonable care and diligence;

2. To account in a timely manner for money and property received from or on behalf of the seller;
3. To be loyal to the seller by not taking action that is adverse or detrimental to the seller’s interest in a transaction;
4. To disclose in a timely manner to the seller any conflict of interest, existing or contemplated;
5. To advise the seller to seek expert advice on matters related to the transaction that are beyond the agent’s expertise;
6. To maintain confidential information from or about the seller except under subpoena or court order, even after termination of the agency relationship; and
7. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, to make a continuous, good faith effort to find a buyer for the property, except that a seller’s agent is not required to seek additional offers to purchase the property while the property is subject to a contract for sale.

None of these affirmative duties of an agent may be waived, except (7). The affirmative duty listed in (7) can only be waived by written agreement between seller and agent.

Under Oregon law, a seller’s agent may show properties owned by another seller to a prospective buyer and may list competing properties for sale without breaching any affirmative duty to the seller.

Unless agreed to in writing, an agent has no duty to investigate matters that are outside the scope of the agent’s expertise, including but not limited to investigation of the condition of property, the legal status of the title or the seller’s past conformance with law.

Duties and Responsibilities of a Buyer’s Agent

An agent, other than the seller’s agent, may agree to act as the buyer’s agent only. The buyer’s agent is not representing the seller, even if the buyer’s agent is receiving compensation for services rendered, either in full or in part, from the seller or through the seller’s agent.

An agent who represents only the buyer owes the following affirmative duties to the buyer, the other parties and the other parties’ agents involved in a real estate transaction:

1. To deal honestly and in good faith;
2. To present all written offers, notices and other communications to and from the parties in a timely manner without regard to whether the property is subject to a contract for sale or the buyer is already a party to a contract to purchase; and
3. To disclose material facts known by the agent and not apparent or readily ascertainable to a party.

A buyer’s agent owes the buyer the following affirmative duties:

1. To exercise reasonable care and diligence;
2. To account in a timely manner for money and property received from or on behalf of the buyer;
3. To be loyal to the buyer by not taking action that is adverse or detrimental to the buyer’s interest in a transaction;
4. To disclose in a timely manner to the buyer any conflict of interest, existing or contemplated;
5. To advise the buyer to seek expert advice on matters related to the transaction that are beyond the agent’s expertise;
6. To maintain confidential information from or about the buyer except under subpoena or court order, even after termination of the agency relationship; and
7. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, to make a continuous, good faith effort to find property for the buyer, except that a buyer’s agent is not required to seek additional properties for the buyer while the buyer is subject to a contract for purchase.

None of these affirmative duties of an agent may be waived, except (7). The affirmative duty listed in (7) can only be waived by written agreement between buyer and agent.

Under Oregon law, a buyer’s agent may show properties in which the buyer is interested to other prospective buyers without breaching an affirmative duty to the buyer.

Unless agreed to in writing, an agent has no duty to investigate matters that are outside the scope of the agent’s expertise, including but not limited to investigation of the condition of property, the legal status of the title or the seller’s past conformance with law.

Duties and Responsibilities of an Agent Who Represents More than One Client in a Transaction

One agent may represent both the seller and the buyer in the same transaction, or multiple buyers who want to purchase the same property, only under a written “Disclosed Limited Agency Agreement” signed by the seller and buyer(s).

Disclosed Limited Agents have the following duties to their clients:

1. To the seller, the duties listed above for a seller’s agent;
2. To the buyer, the duties listed above for a buyer’s agent; and
3. To both buyer and seller, except with express written permission of the respective person, the duty not to disclose to the other person:
 - a. That the seller will accept a price lower or terms less favorable than the listing price or terms;
 - b. That the buyer will pay a price greater or terms more favorable than the offering price or terms; or
 - c. Confidential information as defined above.

Unless agreed to in writing, an agent has no duty to investigate matters that are outside the scope of the agent’s expertise.

When different agents associated with the same principal broker (a real estate licensee who supervises other agents) establish agency relationships with different parties to the same transaction, only the principal broker will act as a Disclosed Limited Agent for both the buyer and seller. The other agents continue to represent only the party with whom the agents have already established an agency relationship unless all parties agree otherwise in writing. The principal real estate broker and the real estate licensees representing either seller or buyer shall owe the following duties to the seller and buyer:

1. To disclose a conflict of interest in writing to all parties;
2. To take no action that is adverse or detrimental to either party’s interest in the transaction; and
3. To obey the lawful instructions of both parties.

No matter whom they represent, an agent must disclose information the agent knows or should know that failure to disclose would constitute fraudulent misrepresentation.

You are encouraged to discuss the above information with the licensee delivering this pamphlet to you. If you intend for that licensee, or any other Oregon real estate licensee, to represent you as a Seller’s Agent, Buyer’s Agent, or Disclosed Limited Agent, you should have a specific discussion with the agent about the nature and scope of the agency relationship. Whether you are a buyer or seller, you cannot make a licensee your agent without the licensee’s knowledge and consent, and an agent cannot make you a client without your knowledge and consent.
