ABOUT CHATTANOOGA

Chattanooga, TN has a population of 562,647 and is the fourth largest city in the state (after Nashville, Memphis and Knoxville). It is the second fastest growing city (second to Nashville) with a population growth rate of 0.98%. Its population has increased by 9.82% since census recorded the population in 2010. Since 2011, Chattanooga and Hamilton County has celebrated over 60 business expansions resulting in 11,686 new jobs and more than $2 billion in capital investment.

Within Chattanooga's downtown there is currently over $1.5 Billion Dollars of investment including hotels, athletic stadiums, performing arts venues and more.

With affordable office space and utilities -- plus the least expensive gigabit-per-second Internet service in the country -- Chattanooga makes doing business affordable. In fact, a recent ranking by SmartAsset found the estimated first-year costs for running a business in Chattanooga are about half of that in Silicon Valley.

The city has won numerous national awards for outstanding "livability" and nine Gunther Blue Ribbon Awards for excellence in housing and consolidated planning. Public art experts chose the Passageways 2.0 City Thread among 50 outstanding public art projects created in 2018 through the Public Art Network Year in Review program, a national program that recognizes compelling art. It has been profiled by US Airways Magazine as a place to see.
