MARKET OVERVIEW

The City Of Lawton, OK

Lawton is a city in and the county seat of Comanche County, in the U.S. state of Oklahoma.

Located in southwestern Oklahoma, approximately 87 miles southwest of Oklahoma City, it is the principal city of the Lawton, Oklahoma, metropolitan statistical area.

According to the 2020 census, Lawton's population was 90,381, making it the sixth-largest city in the state, and the largest in Western Oklahoma.

The city's proximity to the Fort Sill Military Reservation, formerly the base of the Apache territory before statehood, gave Lawton economic and population stability throughout the 20th century.

Although Lawton's economy is still largely dependent on Fort Sill, it has grown to encompass manufacturing, higher education, health care, and retail. The city has a council-manager government; the city council members are elected from single-member districts and the mayor is elected at-large. Lawton employs a professional city manager to direct daily operations.

Lawton is primarily served by Interstate 44, designated as the H. E. Bailey Turnpike. It connects the city to Oklahoma City to the northeast and to Wichita Falls, Texas, to the south. The city is also connected by US Highway 62, which connects to the regional towns of Altus to the west and Anadarko to the north.

Lawton City Highlights

- ▶ Lawton operates 80 parks and recreation areas in varying sizes, including the largest - Elmer Thomas Park. The Lawton Country Club maintains an 18-hole, par 71 golf course. Recreation can also be found in many amateur leagues, including adult softball, youth baseball, soccer, softball, and volleyball.
- ▶ Lawton has three major hospitals in the area. The largest, Comanche County Memorial Hospital, is a 283-bed nonprofit hospital that employs 250 physicians.
- ▶ Lawton Public Schools serve most of the city of Lawton. The district operates two prekindergarten centers, 24 elementary schools, four middle schools, and three high schools. In 2008, Lawton Public Schools had an enrollment of about 16,000 students with about 1,000 teachers.
