"If you're looking for office space, and you want a comfortable, friendly place to hang your hat, then Executive Office Link in Malvern is the place to be. I looked at a number of places before moving into EOL, and the others were either too sterile, too impersonal, too expensive, or they nickel & dined you for all of the 'extras.' Not Executive Office Link. I've rented an office there for the past year, and all of the boxes were checked: comfortable surroundings, reasonable monthly rent, and the friendliest folks running the office that you could ask for. I don't think you'll find a better place to set up your office."
