ESPAÑOLA WAY

Española Way is one of the most heavily trafficked streets in Miami Beach, filled with locals and tourists alike. The fully pedestrianized street was designed to resemble the romantic Mediterranean villages of Spain and France, incorporating beautiful walkways and countless restaurants with outdoor patios.

- The first commercial development on Miami Beach, built in the early 1920s
- $2.5 million revitalization project completed in 2017 to pedestrianize the paseo
- Home to the Esme, Casa Victoria Orchid and El Paseo hotels, totaling approximately 240 hotel rooms
