Why Auburn, Maine for Retail Investment

✓ Regional Consumer Hub

- Serves as the core of the Lewiston-Auburn MSA (pop. 100,000+) with a broader trade area of 250,000+.
- Established as a high-volume retail destination for western and central Maine.

✓ Prime Access & Visibility

- Located at I-95 Exit 75 with direct connections to US Route 4 and major commuter routes.
- High daily traffic counts and strong visibility support tenant performance.

✓ Growth-Oriented Demographics

- Consistent population and income growth with a rising median household income.
- Employment base includes healthcare, logistics, and professional services, fueling demand for retail.

✓ Underserved Retail Market

- Significant gaps remain in key retail categories: soft goods, dining, medical, and lifestyle.
- Functional retail space in strong locations is in high demand from national and regional tenants.

✓ Pro-Business City Leadership

- Efficient permitting, planning, and supportive local government focused on commercial growth.
- Predictable regulatory and tax environment for investors and developers.

✓ Strong Investment Fundamentals

- Attractive pricing and lower entry costs than southern Maine markets create value opportunities.
- Reliable, long-term consumer demand driven by regional draw and stable demographics.
