Executive Summary

This 288-acre site, strategically located at the corner of Highway 71 and 281, represents a prime development opportunity just outside Marble Falls, Texas. With its substantial size and ideal location, this property is perfectly positioned to capitalize on the region's growth and appeal.

Situated at the intersection of two major highways, this site offers excellent accessibility and visibility. Its proximity to Marble Falls, a vibrant community known for its scenic beauty and growing population, enhances its attractiveness for potential development.

The area boasts numerous attractions, including Lake LBJ, a popular destination for boating, fishing, and water sports that draws both tourists and residents. Additionally, multiple golf courses provide recreational opportunities, appealing to retirees and families. The historic downtown of Marble Falls, with its charming shops, restaurants, and cultural landmarks, attracts visitors year-round, further boosting the appeal of this location.

The site is also near several significant developments, underscoring the region's dynamic growth. Thunder Rock, a mixed-use development, contributes to economic growth and infrastructure improvements. Gregg Ranch, a large-scale residential community, reflects the strong demand for housing in the area. Legacy Crossing, a developing commercial hub, indicates robust commercial real estate activity and investment potential.

This 288-acre site offers a unique and compelling development opportunity, ideally located to benefit from Marble Falls' attractions and ongoing regional developments. Its strategic position at a key intersection, coupled with the area's natural beauty and thriving community, makes it an attractive investment for large-scale residential, commercial, or mixed-use projects.

About Marble Falls

Marble Falls, Texas, nestled in the Highland Lakes area, combines natural beauty with vibrant urban life. Known for its stunning lakes like Buchanan, Inks, LBJ, and Marble Falls, the town is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts and water lovers. Visitors can enjoy fishing, boating, and hiking, all while taking in the scenic views of these picturesque waters. The town's lakeside location and tranquil atmosphere make it an ideal destination for those seeking both relaxation and adventure.

The community is buzzing with new developments, including expanding residential neighborhoods, infrastructure improvements, and a revitalized downtown. Dining and retail options are growing, thanks to the Downtown Revitalization Project, which has enhanced the local shopping and culinary scenes. The area's ongoing transformation is attracting new residents and businesses, with projects like the Ophelia Hotel and Conference Center serving as community hubs. Surrounding communities like Horseshoe Bay, Meadowlakes, and Kingsland add to the appeal, offering diverse atmospheres, golf courses, and amenities.

Marble Falls hosts a variety of events and festivals that bring the community to life year-round. Highlights include the Lakefest Drag Boat Races, Mayfest, and the Walkway of Lights, where the town's Lakeside Park is transformed into a festive holiday display. Music and food enthusiasts flock to the Bluegrass, Blues & BBQ Festival, while Market Day on Main offers a monthly showcase of local artisans and vendors. These events contribute to the town's lively cultural scene and provide entertainment for both residents and visitors.

With ongoing efforts to boost tourism and promote the natural beauty of the Highland Lakes region, Marble Falls continues to thrive as a beacon of charm and community spirit. Whether exploring the serene lakes, playing on award-winning golf courses, or immersing in the town's vibrant festivals, Marble Falls promises a perfect blend of tranquility and excitement. Discover the magic of this growing community, where every visit captivates and invites you to return.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH – INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
