ABOUT BUFFALO GROVE

Buffalo Grove is a thriving suburban community of approximately 42,000 residents located just 30 miles northwest of downtown Chicago in Lake and Cook Counties. Known for its affluent, well-educated demographic and excellent school systems, Buffalo Grove attracts families and professionals seeking an elevated suburban lifestyle with convenient urban access. The village's strategic location along major transportation corridors, including Route 83 and nearby highways, provides seamless connectivity to Chicago's central business district and O'Hare International Airport. This established community has experienced significant commercial revitalization in recent years, creating demand for upscale retail, dining, and service concepts that serve its discerning resident base. With its combination of suburban tranquility, strong purchasing power, and ongoing development initiatives, Buffalo Grove represents an ideal market for sophisticated retailers and restaurateurs looking to serve an engaged, affluent customer base.
