OFFERING SUMMARY

Well-positioned multifamily investment opportunity located in the strong rental market of North Bakersfield. Built in 1982, the property offers approximately 9,785 square feet of building space situated on a 29,620 square foot lot, providing ample room for tenant parking and accessibility. The site includes approximately 40 parking spaces, a valuable feature for tenant convenience.

The property benefits from 5 Section 8 contracts, providing stable, government-backed rental income and helping reduce vacancy risk. Bakersfield continues to experience steady demand for affordable housing, making this an attractive opportunity for both new and experienced investors seeking reliable cash flow and long-term stability.

The property offers convenient access to major transportation routes including California State Route 99, as well as primary corridors such as Airport Drive and North Chester Avenue, connecting residents to employment centers and amenities throughout the Bakersfield area. Nearby retail, dining, and everyday services are located along these commercial corridors, with regional shopping available at Valley Plaza Mall, one of the largest shopping destinations in the San Joaquin Valley.

The surrounding area consists of established residential neighborhoods with consistent rental demand and continued growth potential, supporting long-term investment performance.

THE CITY OF BAKERSFIELD

Bakersfield, located in the southern portion of California's Central Valley, is one of the largest cities in Kern County, spanning approximately 150 square miles.

As a major economic center for the region, Bakersfield plays a vital role in supporting both the agricultural and energy industries, which serve as key drivers of the local economy. The city's strategic location provides convenient access to major metropolitan areas, including Los Angeles (approximately 110 miles to the south), Fresno (110 miles to the north), and Sacramento (280 miles to the north).

Bakersfield's location also places it within reach of several well-known natural destinations. The Sequoia National Forest, Kern River Canyon, and Lake Isabella are all within a short drive, offering opportunities for hiking, camping, boating, and outdoor recreation. In addition to its access to nature, Bakersfield offers a lively community atmosphere with a variety of cultural and entertainment options. Local attractions include the Kern County Museum, Buck Owens' Crystal Palace, Mechanics Bank Arena, and the California Living Museum (CALM Zoo), providing activities for residents and visitors alike.

Economy Highlights

- Major healthcare employers include Adventist Health Bakersfield, Dignity Health – Memorial Hospital, and Kern Medical, which are among the largest employers in the region.
- Bakersfield has a strong presence in agriculture and energy production, with major companies such as Grimmway Farms, Bolthouse Farms, Chevron, and Aera Energy contributing significantly to the local economy.
- Higher education institutions including California State University, Bakersfield and Bakersfield College support workforce development and economic growth.
- Bakersfield's logistics and distribution sector continues to expand due to its strategic location along major transportation corridors such as Highway 99 and Interstate 5, attracting regional and national distribution centers.
- The city's growing population, affordable cost of living, and business-friendly environment continue to drive demand for housing, retail, and commercial development throughout the Bakersfield metropolitan area.
