Investment Overview

Wildcat Management, the owner of 1823 Cadiz Street, is pleased to exclusively offer this rare 0.67-acre development opportunity located in downtown Dallas, Texas. This exceptional site benefits from highly favorable PD 357 zoning, which offers zero height restrictions, a floor-area ratio (FAR) of 20:1, and minimal parking requirements for new developments. Located in a prime downtown Dallas submarket, 1823 Cadiz Street presents an unparalleled chance for a developer to shape the city's skyline with a new tower. Approved uses include hotel, multifamily, office, and retail. The property is strategically positioned adjacent to key areas such as the Newpark District, Farmers Market District, Harwood Park, East Quarter, the Dallas Convention Center expansion, and several major downtown employers.

Currently, the site operates as an income-generating surface parking lot with 68 spaces, primarily serving the Dallas Farmers Market and surrounding destinations.

Additionally, 1823 Cadiz Street is situated within an Opportunity Zone, offering attractive tax incentives to qualifying developers and investors.

Dallas has also garnered significant attention recently with the launch of the Texas Stock Exchange, supported by major Wall Street firms such as BlackRock and Citadel Securities, further solidifying the city's status as a business hub.

Overall, 1823 Cadiz Street offers a rare opportunity to acquire a vertical development site in a highly coveted, high-barrier-to-entry market. With flexible PD 357 zoning and proximity to major ongoing developments—including the Convention Center expansion, Newpark District, and Farmers Market District—this site is perfectly positioned for a landmark project in downtown Dallas.
