1960'S RETRO CLASSIC. ALWAYS IN STYLE.

Nifty neighborhood icon seeks companion.

Groovy or Greyhound? Both actually. A former Greyhound depot, this 1960s downtown icon still carries its mod design, but the buses are, as they say, "outta sight." After its bus days, 1503 Pacific became a credit union and is now ready for its next era of use as a cool pad for a forward-looking company that loves a retro vibe. Located at the corner of Pacific and Hoyt, this stand-out building is just steps from Downtown's restaurants, bars, espresso fixes and Silvertip hockey sticks at Angel of the Winds Arena.

INVESTING IN EVERETT.

A homegrown company committed to creating a vibrant place for people to live and work.

We're local. Everett is not only where our company has been anchored for over 50 years, it is our home. Supporting and improving Downtown Everett is our priority. Our commitment runs from animating the sidewalk experience with colorful flowers and public art, to viewing our properties through the lens of long-term investment, measuring returns in decades, not years. This perspective frees us to choose quality over a quick fix, to do it right the first time, and to value relationships over short-term success.
