SAG HARBOR

Sag Harbor is a village located within the Township of East Hampton located just 90 miles east of Manhattan. The area was settled in 1693 and was later incorporated as a village in 1846. The deep-water port to Gardiner's Bay made Sag Harbor a flourishing trading and port town. Now, the estates, waterfronts, restaurants, shops, and proximity to New York City that Sag Harbor has attracts international appeal.

As of 2024, Sag Harbor has a population of 2,796, with an average household income of $214,384. Sag Harbor is currently growing at a rate of 0.39% annually, and its population has increased by 1.6% since the previous census in 2020.

Explore the Sag Harbor Whaling & Historical Museum to dive into the village's maritime past or catch a live show at Bay Street Theater. Outdoor enthusiasts can unwind at Havens Beach, walk along the Long Wharf Marina, or enjoy a picnic at Mashashimuet Park.

Main Street is known for its vibrant dining scene and small business shopping experience. Visitors can enjoy a diverse range of restaurants, from casual cafes to upscale eateries, many offering fresh seafood and farm-to-table options. The street is also home to unique boutiques, art galleries, and locally-owned shops,
