Thornton, Colorado

With a population of 135,000, Thornton is the 6th largest city in the state of Colorado, and with plans to grow to 250,000 the city offers plentiful opportunities for commercial development. Easy access to I-25, I-70, and E-470, as well as to Denver International Airport is a draw for many large companies, including Amazon, which is opening a new 855,000 SF Distribution Facility at the end of 2018.

Thornton has plentiful jobs in all industry sectors. The majority of primary employment in Thornton is concentrated in and around the Washington Square Business Park, a 200-acre development with full services including restaurants, hotels, and major companies such as Qwest, Double Click, Fisher Imaging, BMC, West Wyle Labs, Nabisco and more. One of the regions fastest growing areas, Thornton boasts all the amenities the modern family is looking for. There is a myriad of shopping, dining, and entertainment as well as the new Centura St Anthony's North Health Campus, all within a 3 mile radius from our site.

The Orchard Town Center is an open-air retail and entertainment district conveniently located on the northwest corner of I-25 and 144th Avenue in Westminster, Colorado. The Orchard Town Center is home to a 12 screen AMC movie theater along with dozens of retailers, specialty shops, and restaurants. Developed in one of Denver's fastest growing suburban areas, The Orchard Town Center has become the shopping, dining and entertainment destination for the northern Denver metro area.

Denver Premium Outlets is the area's premier outlet shopping destination featuring a diverse mix of popular designer and lifestyle brands.

Denver Premium Outlets' architects were inspired by the scenery of the magnificent Rocky Mountains and have incorporated a number of design elements unique to the Colorado landscape. At the center, shoppers will find a Coloradan outdoor experience that strikes a balance between the organic and the man-made – complete with heavy timber and steel architecture that uses robust geometries, materials and open transparency to frame the natural setting around it.
