CBRE is pleased to present the industrial complex at 6717 W. 61st for sale. Featuring four (4) main buildings, totaling nearly 55,000 SF on 12.39± acres, the site is well suited for a user that may require significant yard area with room to expand.

As currently configured, there are two office buildings and two large warehouses with a significant concrete field, providing room for expansion. On the north end of the site is a rail spur with roughly 150' of frontage. The site is fully fenced and features additional structures, including a 100,000 gallon water tank, a pump house, a field office and a small structure that served as a fire suppression building.

Located on the west side of Tulsa, the property is located in an industrial corridor, with a number of warehousing and manufacturing uses adjacent.
