Property Description

Position your business for success at The Tower, a premier office property strategically located along Madison Boulevard with immediate access to I-565. This highly visible and accessible location places tenants in the center of Huntsville's thriving business corridor.

Suites ranging from 467 SF to 8,050 SF are available and thoughtfully designed to accommodate general office, lab, research, training, computer, and high-technology applications. The flexible layouts allow companies to scale efficiently while benefiting from infrastructure built to support modern operational needs.

Tenants enjoy high-speed fiber optic connectivity, advanced security systems with 24/7 surveillance, and a technology-forward environment ideal for innovation-driven organizations.

A standout feature of the property is the 50-seat auditorium, complete with stage, sound system, and projection capabilities—perfect for corporate presentations, training sessions, and company events.

The Tower offers sleek, contemporary interiors and panoramic cityscape views, creating a professional setting that enhances both employee experience and client perception.

With exceptional connectivity, cutting-edge infrastructure, and a prime Madison Boulevard address, The Tower provides a strategic location positioned for long-term business growth and value.
