WAKE BRT - NEW BERN AVE

The Wake BRT - New Bern Avenue project is currently under construction, extending from Downtown Raleigh to New Hope Road. The 5-mile corridor will include 19 new station platforms and 3.3 miles of dedicated bus lanes, improving travel times and accessibility along one of the city's busiest routes. With service planned to connect key destinations such as WakeMed and nearby shopping centers, the project will bring enhanced public transit right to New Bern Avenue, supporting continued growth and connectivity in East Raleigh.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Corridor: Downtown Raleigh → New Hope Rd (~ 5.1 miles)
- Stations: 19 BRT platforms with upgraded shelters and real-time info
- Dedicated Lanes: 3.3 miles for faster, more reliable bus service
- Signal Priority: Keeps buses moving through traffic lights
- Major Stops: Downtown, WakeMed, and New Bern Ave shopping centers
- Status: Under construction now - Raleigh's first BRT corridor
