VISITOR INFORMATION

Situated just 22 minutes away from Kahului Airport, the sunny coastal town of Kihei in South Maui as a vibrant entertainment hub catering to both locals and tourists. With its prime location positioned between the neighboring resort-community of Wailea and the business-centric town of Kahului, Kihei offers easy accessibility for visitors and caters to the residential population with a dynamic mix of attractions. Known for its arid and dry climate (receiving about seventeen inches of rainfall every year), the region maintains its status as one of Maui's most desirable locations for visitors and offers more than 8,000 vacation-oriented lodgings and reasonably priced accommodations, including condos, small hotels, and private residences.
