RR-ACRE (Rural-Residential Acre) zoning district is intended for low-density rural residential development with large lot sizes and a limited development intensity. This zoning classification supports uses such as estate-style single-family homes, rural residential communities, agricultural activities, and accessory rural uses, making it well suited for redevelopment opportunities seeking a spacious setting with flexibility for residential or agricultural-oriented projects.

AGR (Agricultural) zoning district is intended to preserve agricultural and rural land uses while allowing for limited low-density residential development. This classification supports a variety of agricultural operations, farming activities, single-family residences, and related rural uses, making it well suited for agricultural investment, rural estates, or long-term land redevelopment opportunities with significant open space and flexibility.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

0 Chaffee Rd Jacksonville, FL 32220

Discover a rare investment opportunity in the heart of Jacksonville's rapidly expanding Westside. Spanning 13.37 acres with prime frontage on Chaffee Road, this strategically located parcel sits just moments from the I-10 interchange, offering unparalleled connectivity to the First Coast Expressway and the greater Jacksonville metro area. A standout feature of this property is the expansive 4.45-acre pond, which provides a significant head start for developers by serving as a pre-existing retention solution. With a split zoning of RR-Acre and AGR, the site offers a versatile canvas for those looking to capitalize on the region's aggressive growth and high-demand infrastructure.

The surrounding corridor is currently a hotbed for major development, underscored by the Chaffee Square retail center, the ongoing widening of Chaffee Road, and the nearby Plaza at Normandy anchored by Publix. Industrial and commercial giants like Amazon and Boeing have solidified the Westside as an economic powerhouse, while over 6,600 new housing units in the immediate submarket drive the need for further residential and service-oriented projects. Whether you are looking to develop a private estate or rezone for a high-density project, this parcel is positioned perfectly to ride the wave of West Jacksonville's transformation. Buyer to obtain all due diligence.
