LOCATION OVERVIEW

Location Overview

Location Overview

COMMERCE CITY

As one of Colorado's fastest-growing communities, Commerce City is evolving from its industrial roots into a dynamic hub for families, professionals, and investors. Strategically located along the Front Range, just minutes from Downtown Denver and Denver International Airport, the city offers unmatched access, connectivity, and opportunity.

Commerce City is a diverse, welcoming, and thriving community where residents enjoy 25 miles of scenic trails, 840 acres of parks and open space, a championship golf course, and one of the nation's largest soccer complexes. Home to the Rocky Mountain Arsenal National Wildlife Refuge, it uniquely blends urban convenience with expansive natural beauty.

With more than 1,400 businesses, ranging from global corporations to innovative local start-ups, Commerce City serves as a key center of employment and economic growth in the region. Major employers include Suncor Energy, FedEx Ground, United Parcel Service (UPS), Greyhound Lines, and a growing number of logistics, energy, and manufacturing firms. The city's strategic location along I-70, I-76, and E-470 provides excellent connectivity for distribution and commerce, attracting continued industrial and residential investment.

Over the past decade, Commerce City's population has surged by nearly 40%, growing from approximately 49,000 residents in 2010 to more than 68,000 in 2023 — making it one of the top 10 fastest-growing cities in Colorado. A young median age (33 years) and expanding employment base are fueling consistent housing demand, particularly for high-quality multifamily housing and mixed-use developments.
