LAKE NONA MEDICAL CITY

This 650-acre biomedical campus nestled within Orlando's Lake Nona master-planned community, is just minutes from Orlando International Airport. Launched in 2005 by the Tavistock Group's land and funding donation to UCF, it opened around 2010 and has since become a national model of healthcare, education, and research integration.

Key institutions include:

- University of Central Florida Health Sciences Campus, featuring the College of Medicine, Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences, and the UCF Lake Nona Medical Center, a 64-bed teaching hospital opened in March 2021 in partnership with HCA.
- Orlando VA Medical Center, which opened for patients in 2015.
- Nemours Children's Hospital, UF College of Pharmacy (#5 nationally), UF Research & Academic Center, and UCF Cancer Center.
