

THE BUILDING

Overlooking the historic Rideau Canal, the Baldachin Inn is a circa 1860's heritage designated building.

Located in the very center of Merrickville, the Baldachin Inn was once the largest department store between Chicago and Montreal.

BALDACHIN FAMILY DINING

Superb European cuisine drawn from the world's finest traditions, enhanced by old world charm and elegance, one of Ontario's few heritage designated interiors featuring stained glass overlooking the canal. Fresh daily lunch and dinner specials.

BALDACHIN BALLROOM

The Ballroom's 6000 sq. ft of understated elegance, features 15 foot stone walls, hardwood floors and an elegant country French decor, overlooking the Historic Rideau Canal. Specializing in banquets, weddings, meetings, conferences and receptions, the Baldachin Ballroom offers a wide variety of services and appointments with seating for 200.
