PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

My real estate experience started in my early twenties when I became an outside sales manager for a building supply company in Illinois. Having learned as much as I could about the construction industry, I then took that knowledge to the field of appraising. I was a Certified Real Estate Appraiser for 12 years and owned and operated my own appraising firm in Charleston, SC. Additionally, I am a real estate investor, owning both a flipping company and long-term holding company. After relocating to Nashville, TN in 2021, I decided to become a commercial real estate agent so I could follow my passion of working with fellow entrepreneurs. I really enjoy helping entrepreneurs find solutions to their commercial real estate needs. I bring my 20 years of real estate experience into every transaction, making me uniquely qualified to be an advisor/advocate for my clients. I am honored to serve my clients with their commercial real estate needs, while building long-lasting relationships.
