1255 E M-36
Pinckney, MI 48169

Formerly an IHA medical facility and located in the prime business corridor, this freshly renovated building offers multiple private offices or exam rooms, a conference room which could be divided, a spacious open area for a lobby or bullpen, and a large loft space for storage or a break area. The layout is perfect for a variety of medical or professional practices, providing ample space for both staff and clients. The renovations have been thoughtfully designed to create a modern and inviting atmosphere, perfect for impressing clients and creating a comfortable work environment for employees. Ample parking is available in the private lot. Drain lines and water supply lines are available in the wall of each office/exam room.
