Investment Overview

The Beautiful Marsh Creek Springs Resort, spread across 14.25 acres has a captivating legacy of several decades. This property not only boasts a rich historical significance but also presents an enticing proposition with its dual income derived from both the resort operations and the 15 freestanding residential cabins and homes. Further enhancing its appeal is the seller's flexible financing option, allowing interested investors to capitalize on this property with ease. It has the added advantage of being divided into four legal parcels.
