- · Treatallpartiestoarealestatetransactionhonestlyandfairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent of the property of transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent of the property of transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent of the property of transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent of the property of transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent of the property of transaction known by the agent, including information about the property of transaction known by the agent, including information about the property of transaction known by the agent, including information about the property of transaction known by the agent, including information about the property of transaction known by the agent, including information about the property of transaction known by the agent, including information about the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property of transaction known by the agent and the property

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlinedprint, setforth the broker sobligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Musttreatallpartiestothetransactionimpartiallyandfairly;
