Future Park

The Mountains-to-Sea Trail is a simple footpath stretching almost 1,200 miles across North Carolina from Clingmans Dome in the Great Smoky Mountains to Jockey's Ridge on the Outer Banks. More than just a walk in the woods, the trail traces the diversity that is North Carolina.

Wake Forest

Downtown Wake Forest is known for its big city energy and small town charm. The area is North Carolina's 9th fastest growing municipality, with dozens of proposed and under construction developments in the pipeline. Wake Forest is in the middle of a downtown renaissance, seeing much of the same growth as its neighboring Raleigh markets.

Ranking as one of the most highly educated municipalities in the Triangle, over 50% of Wake Forest residents have a bachelor's degree or higher. The small town has big connectivity with quick access to three large universities (UNC-Chapel Hill, NC State, and Duke), as well as multiple community colleges and Downtown Wake Forest's Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.
