100 Motor Parkway, along with its twin building, 102 Motor Parkway, proudly stands at the entrance to the Long Island Innovation Park (LIIP), formally known as the Hauppauge Industrial Park. LIIP reportedly accounts for 8.2% of Long Island's gross domestic product and houses 1,350 companies.

The building, standing 6 stories high and, therefore, has great visibility on the Long Island Expressway. There is exactly one traffic light between 100 Motor Parkway and Manhattan.
