Utah Mammoth unveils new state-of-the-art training facility at Shops at South Town

KSL TV LOCAL NEWS | SEPTEMBER 17, 2025

Just weeks before the NHL season starts in October, and roughly one year after breaking ground, the new Utah Mammoth practice facility is nearing completion as the doors have officially opened to the team.

With both rookie and training camp taking place at the facility in Sandy, UT, the player and staff areas are now fully operational as the Mammoth begin preparations for their second campaign in the National Hockey League.

Take a first look at the new Utah Mammoth practice facility in Sandy

A world-class fortress of ice has been constructed for the Utah Mammoth in Sandy.

Located at southeast end of The Shops at South Town, this new NHL training facility has been fully outfitted with the latest and greatest ice surfaces, training and medical facilities, team offices, a spectacular locker room and spaces for visiting teams. [...]

"This new Utah Mammoth practice and training facility is one of the most tech forward facilities in all of sports. Not only will it be an epic place for players to train, but it will be an incredible gathering place for the community as well," said Ryan and Ashley Smith, co-founders of SEG and owners of the Utah Mammoth. [...] This facility represents our commitment to building a championship-caliber environment that positions the Utah Mammoth for long-term success in the NHL while connecting us more deeply to the community."
