Downtown Santa Rosa

Step into the vibrant heart of Santa Rosa and discover Downtown—a place where every day brings something new. Wander through locally owned boutiques, savor meals at an eclectic mix of restaurants, and relax with a drink at one of the many breweries or bars that give the area its unmistakable energy.

Throughout the year, Downtown comes alive with events—from lively street festivals and weekly farmers markets to art walks, summer concerts, and movie nights at Old Courthouse Square. Whether you're shopping, dining, or simply exploring, Downtown Santa Rosa offers something for everyone.

This dynamic area is part of a formally recognized Community Benefit District (CBD), established after the reunification of Courthouse Square. The CBD spans 1st to 7th Street and B to E Street and works to support local property and business owners, foster city partnerships, and maintain a clean, welcoming downtown environment.

In addition, Downtown Santa Rosa is part of an Enhanced Infrastructure Financing District (EIFD), which reinvests property tax growth into vital public infrastructure and economic development projects that benefit the entire community. This financing mechanism will provide significant and critical infrastructure to support new development projects.

Exciting new developments are shaping the future of Downtown. The Felix, a new eight-story apartment complex by San Francisco-based Related California, recently opened on Mendocino Avenue. With amenities like a coworking lounge, fitness center, and rooftop retreat, it's redefining urban living in Santa Rosa.

As new businesses, restaurants, and employers move in, Downtown is becoming a magnet for both residents and professionals looking for a vibrant place to live, work, and connect. Come see what's happening in Downtown Santa Rosa—your next adventure starts here.
