A Rare Dual Opportunity

For Sale

Acquire a thriving general dental practice together with the multi-tenant office building it occupies. Perfect for an owner-occupant dentist looking to combine practice ownership with the benefits of investment real estate.

This exceptional opportunity offers the security of owning your facility, continuing a well-established, successful practice, and capitalizing on third-party rental income. The building's stabilized rent-roll, when coupled with the practice's loyal patient base, updated equipment, and a prime location in a growing community, provides a seamless path for a practitioner to step into a respected practice and achieve long-term operational and financial stability.
