Owatonna, MN

Owatonna is strategically located at the intersection of I-35 and two major US highways, making it highly accessible in the Midwest. US Highway 14 connects many employment centers in Southern Minnesota, enhancing its economic significance. The city has a retail trade area with $285 million in purchasing power, featuring three main shopping zones: Cedar Mall/Oakdale, Hoffman Drive, and downtown.

With a population of over 27,000, Owatonna enjoys high income and education levels, attracting new residents annually. The community offers diverse job opportunities and a high quality of life, leading to projected growth that outpaces many non-metro areas. It serves as a shopping, tourism, and healthcare hub in southern Minnesota, consistently ranking among the most livable small towns in the nation.

Federated Insurance, headquartered in Owatonna, MN, proudly calls the city's charming downtown district its home. The Federated home office, nestled among Owatonna's historic streets, houses a large team of dedicated employees who regularly support and engage with local businesses. This presence not only strengthens the community's economy but also adds to the vibrant atmosphere of downtown Owatonna.
