LIGHT INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY

LOCATION AND DEMOGRAPHICS

Home to over 450,000 people, Solano County is a special place, with its inviting mix of rural and suburban lifestyles and easy access to all of the urban amenities associated with two of the nation's most dynamic metropolitan regions. Just 45 miles northeast of San Francisco and 45 miles southwest of Sacramento - the State capitol, Solano County is home to rolling hillsides, waterfronts and fertile farmland.

First formed in 1850, there are seven incorporated cities in the county in addition to unincorporated areas. The city of Fairfield serves as the County Seat and two of the county's seven cities, Benicia and Vallejo, served as California's State Capital in the early 1850's. With its strategic location, affordable housing, and attractive quality of life, Solano County has a promising future as a place to live, learn, work and play. The America's Promise Alliance has affirmed this fact five times, naming Solano County as one of the 100 Best Communities for Young People - the only California community with this distinction.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Set strategically along Interstate 80, a major transportation corridor stretching from coast to coast, Solano County recently completed improvements to the interchanges in Fairfield carrying traffic west along Highway 12 and east along Highway 680 making this area a dynamic hub for commerce. Solano County features twenty one (21) business and industrial parks on over 3,600 acres and has over 115 Tier 1 for shovel ready sites. Major employers include Collins

Aerospace, Valero Benicia Refinery, Guittard Chocolate Company and Kaiser Permanente. Travis Air Force Base in Vacaville is known as "The Gateway to the Pacific" for it's principal role as a military airlift hub. Notable schools include University of California (UC) Davis, a UC Berkeley extension and Solano County Community College.

RECREATION

In Solano County you will find a wide variety of recreational activities, places to stay and restaurants to enjoy. Evidence of early California history can be found in each of its seven cities and a short drive along its back roads will lead you to beautiful vistas, art galleries, museums, local wineries and fresh farm produce. The county is comprised of a four park system where you can experience the shaded shorelines along Lake Solano Park, reminiscent of a Mark Twain riverside setting; Sandy Beach Park, the only local sand beach on the Sacramento River; Belden's Landing, offering a fishing pier and a boat launch accessing the Suisun Marsh; and the Lynch Canyon Open Space District with its rolling hills, hiking and equestrian trails each preserving the County's rural heritage.

Wine grapes have carpeted the floor of Suisun Valley since the mid-1800's and Solano County boasts the one of the oldest American Viticultural Areas (AVA) in California, second only to Napa Valley, and part of the world renowned North Coast AVA, which includes Napa, Sonoma, and Mendocino Counties. Over twenty five wineries call Solano County home and the Suisun Valley is a great destination for tasting fine wines in a slow paced, bucolic setting.
