The unpretentious attitude of the East Village draws people from all walks of life, contributing to the neighborhood's unique and eclectic identity. Access to nearby subway lines and Citi Bike stations make commuting quick, easy, and convenient. Up and coming lifestyle brands exist throughout the neighborhood alongside restaurants and bars, catering to locals and tourists alike. Houston Street is one of the city's broadest and most significant crosstown arteries, connecting the East Village and Lower East Side with Soho and Greenwich Village. Visible from multiple vantage points in the vibrant East Village, 250 East Houston is iconic.
