Hillsboro/Sunset Corridor:

Located at 2630 SE 39th Loop in Hillsboro, the property sits within an established industrial district in Washington County, offering excellent regional connectivity and access to a deep employment base. The site is positioned just off Oregon Route 8 (SE Tualatin Valley Highway) and minutes from U.S. Route 26.

Well situated just south of the region’s well-known Sunset Corridor, the surrounding area benefits from proximity to one of Oregon’s largest concentrations of advanced manufacturing and technology employers, including major facilities operated by Intel. This location places the property within reach of a substantial workforce and a strong ecosystem of suppliers, manufacturers, and service providers.

The property is also located approximately a half-mile from Sunset Esplanade, a regional retail destination anchored by Target, Safeway, The Home Depot, and Lowe’s, offering convenient access to dining, shopping, and everyday services that support the area’s workforce.
